PREAMBLE

WHEREAS the United Republic values dignity of every human person and guarantees respect of individual rights;

AND WHEREAS the United Republic recognises equal rights and inherent human dignity of people as enshrined in the Constitution of the United Republic of Tanzania of 1977, and in the United Nations Convention Against Transnational Organised Crime together with the Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons, and children and other universally accepted human rights instruments and international conventions to which the United Republic is signatory;

AND WHEREAS the United Republic accords highest priority to the enactment of measures and development of programme that promotes human dignity, protects the people from any threat of violence and exploitation, eliminates trafficking in persons and mitigates pressures for involuntary migration and service of persons with a view to ensuring their recovery, rehabilitation and re-integration into the mainstream of the society;

AND WHEREAS the United Republic is convinced that despite the existence of a variety of international instruments containing rules and practical measures to combat exploitation of persons, there is a need to put in place a comprehensive legislation to address all aspects of trafficking in persons;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT ENACTED by Parliament of the United Republic of Tanzania as follows:

INVESTIGATIONS AND JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS

Confidentiality
Act No.
9 of 2021 s. 7

10.—(1) The private life and identity of victims of trafficking in persons shall be secured and protected.

(2) The law enforcement organs, judges, court personnel and medical practitioners, as well as parties to the case shall, at any stage of investigation and trial of an offence under this Act, recognise the right to privacy of the trafficked person and the accused.

(3) The court before which the complaint has been referred may, after considering all circumstances for the best interest of the parties, order the proceedings to be held in camera.

(4) The name and personal particulars of the trafficked person or any other information regarding the trafficked person shall not be disclosed to the public.

(5) Where prosecution is conducted in camera, it shall be unlawful for-

- (a) an editor, publisher, reporter or columnist;
- (b) announcer or producer;
- (c) producer or director of a film; or
- (d) any person utilising tri-media facilities or information technology, to cause publicity of that prosecution.

(6) A person who contravenes the provisions of this section commits an offence.

[s. 9]

Reporting of offences
Act No.
9 of 2021 s. 8

11.-(1) A person who possesses information about any person committing an offence of trafficking in persons shall immediately report the offence to the police officer or any person in the security services within the locality.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence.

(3) Where the information under subsection (1) is reported to a person other than a police officer, such person shall convey the information to the nearest police station.

[s. 10]

Interrogation by police officer

12.-(1) Where a police officer receives a report pursuant to section 11, that officer shall-

- (a) interrogate the persons alleged to be in commission of the offence of trafficking in persons; and
- (b) record the information in detail.

(2) A police officer who comes by a victim of trafficking in person shall be under the general duty to-

- (a) assist the victim to obtain medical and psychological treatment, where it is necessary;
- (b) assist the victim to a place of safety if the victim expresses concern about safety; and
- (c) inform the victim of his rights and any basic support which may be available to assist the victim.

[s. 11]

Arrest by police officer
Act No.
9 of 2021 s. 9

13.-(1) A police officer shall not arrest a person for any offence under this Act without a warrant.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a police officer may arrest a person for trafficking in persons without a warrant where-

- (a) an act of trafficking in persons is committed in the presence of that police officer;
- (b) the police officer is obstructed by the suspect from conducting investigation; and
- (c) a person is about to commit an offence of trafficking in persons and there is no other way to prevent the commission of the offence.

(3) Where an arrest under this Act is carried out by an officer from another security service, such officer shall immediately hand over the arrested person to the nearest police station.

[s. 12]

Commission of second and subsequent offences
Act No.
7 of 2022 s. 9

14. The court may, in addition to specific penalties stipulated in various provisions under this Act, impose a fine of not less than one hundred million shillings but not exceeding two hundred million shillings for a person who is convicted for a second or subsequent offence under this Act.

[s. 13]

Confiscation and forfeiture of proceeds and instruments derived from trafficking in persons
Act No.
4 of 2016 s. 6

15.—(1) In addition to the penalty imposed for the commission of an offence under this Act, the court may on its own motion or on application by the Attorney General, order confiscation and forfeiture to the Government of—

- (a) all proceeds and properties derived from the commission of the offence of trafficking in person; or
- (b) anything used for purposes of committing or facilitating the commission of the offence of trafficking in person.

(2) All awards for damages shall be taken from the personal and separate properties of the accused person except where such properties are insufficient, in which case the balance shall be made good from the proceeds of the confiscated and forfeited properties.

(3) Where the proceeds, properties and instruments in respect of which the offence of trafficking in persons was committed are destroyed, diminished in value or otherwise rendered worthless by any act or omission, directly or indirectly, of the offender, or it has been concealed, removed, converted or transferred to prevent the same from being found or to avoid forfeiture or confiscation, the offender shall be ordered to pay the amount equal to the value of the proceeds, property or instruments of the offence.

[s. 14]

Compensation

16.—(1) A person convicted of the offence of trafficking in persons under this Act shall be ordered by the court to pay compensation to the victim of the trafficking in persons.

(2) A person who causes injury to any person in pursuant of trafficking in persons under this Act shall be ordered to pay compensation to the injured person.

(3) The payment of compensation shall be in addition to any other punishment.

[s. 15]

Identification of victims

17. Identification of victims of trafficking in persons shall be carried out by an authorised officer or any other person that have reasonable grounds to believe that a person is a victim of trafficking in persons.

[s. 16]

PART IV

RESCUE, REHABILITATION, PROTECTION AND ASSISTANCE TO VICTIMS

Rescue, care, rehabilitation and counseling of trafficked persons

18.—(1) The public officers in the security services shall be responsible for the rescue of a trafficked person and provision of temporary basic material support for the care and protection of a rescued victim of trafficking in persons.

(2) Social rehabilitation of rescued victims shall be carried out by social welfare officers for the purpose of re-instating the victim back into normal way of life and may include provision of legal assistance and material assistance, psychological, medical and professional rehabilitation, employment and a dwelling place.

(3) The Commissioner for Social Welfare shall provide counseling services to the victims of trafficking in persons with a view to assisting in the rehabilitation and re-integration of such persons.

(4) Without prejudice to the preceding provisions of this section, the best interest of the child or disabled person shall be paramount in any assistance given to rescue, rehabilitate, counsel or re-integrate a child who is a victim of trafficking in persons.

[s. 17]

Protection and assistance to victims

19.—(1) The Minister shall, in cooperation with the Minister responsible for social welfare, take adequate measures for protection, rehabilitation and assistance to rescued victims.

(2) Protection and assistance services offered pursuant to subsection (1), shall not be conditioned upon willingness of rescued victims to make statements and to participate in the prosecution of perpetrators of the trafficking in persons.

(3) Protection, rehabilitation, assistance and other services to rescued victims shall be offered subject to availability of resources and may include but not limited to-

- (a) free interpreting services in the language of their choice;
- (b) free legal counsel in relation to trafficking issues;
- (c) temporary safe housing, psychological, medical and social welfare as may be necessary to provide for the needs; and
- (d) such other services as may be specified in the administrative direction.

[s. 18]

Assistance and protection to child victims

20.-(1) The Government shall secure the protection, rehabilitation and assistance to a victim of trafficking in persons who is a child or a disabled person from the moment when grounds exist to believe that the child or the disabled person is such a victim until identification, integration and complete recovery of the child is procured.

(2) Where the age of the victim is not known but there are reasons to believe that the victim has not yet reached eighteen years, it shall be presumed that the victim is a child until final verification of the age.

[s. 19]

Centers for protection of victims
Act No.
4 of 2016 s. 7

21.-(1) The Government shall, on the advice of the Anti-Trafficking Committee, establish or designate centers for protection and assistance to victims of trafficking in persons.

(2) Centres established or designated pursuant to subsection (1), shall provide accommodation, nutrition, legal assistance, psychological and medical care, security and protection to the victims of trafficking in persons as well as assistance to locate their relatives.

[s. 20]

Repatriation of victims

22.—(1) The Government shall ensure repatriation and reception of victims of trafficking in persons who are Tanzanians or stateless persons who were entitled to permanent residence in the United Republic upon entry into the territory of another state.

(2) The Government may facilitate repatriation of victim of trafficking in persons who does not possess the necessary documents by issuance of traveling documents or any other authorisation needed for the repatriation.

[s. 21]

Repatriation of child or disabled person

23. A child or a disabled person who is a victim of trafficking in persons shall be repatriated to his country of origin where prior to his return-

- (a) a parent, relative or legal guardian has given consent to receiving the child or the disabled person into his care; and
- (b) a government agency or child protection agency from the country of origin has given consent and is able to undertake responsibility for the child and grant the child adequate assistance and protection.

[s. 22]

Repatriation of foreign citizens, etc.

24.—(1) The Government shall-

- (a) grant assistance to foreign citizens and stateless persons who are victims of trafficking in persons upon their voluntary repatriation to their country of origin; and
- (b) ensure transportation of the victims of trafficking in persons on safe conditions to the border of United Republic.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a victim of trafficking in persons may not be repatriated or expelled to his country of origin or a third state where there is a ground to believe that the repatriation or expulsion may expose him to a risk of his life or that his safety or safety of his family may be endangered.

(3) Where the victim of trafficking in persons has no traveling documents due to their loss, theft or destruction, the Government shall, upon the request by the foreign state, assist in obtaining such documents as may be necessary to enable that victim to return to his country of residence.

[s. 23]

Programs that address trafficking in persons

25.—(1) It shall be the duty of the Government to establish, implement and coordinate preventive, protective and rehabilitative programmes for trafficked persons.

(2) For purposes of subsection (1), the Government shall-

(a) through the Ministry responsible for foreign affairs-

(i) make available its resources and facilities overseas for trafficked persons regardless of manner of entry to the receiving country, and explore means to further enhance its assistance in elimination of trafficking activities through closer networking with government agencies in the country and overseas, particularly in the formulation of policies and implementation of relevant programs; and

(ii) establish and implement a pre-marriage, on-site and pre-departure counseling programme on intermarriages;

(b) through a Ministry responsible for social welfare-

(i) implement rehabilitative and protective programmes for trafficked persons; and

(ii) provide counseling and temporary shelter to trafficked persons and develop a system for accreditation among NGO for purposes of establishing centers and programmes for intervention in various levels of the community;

- (c) through a Ministry responsible for labour and employment-
 - (i) ensure strict implementation and compliance with the rules and guidelines relating to the employment of persons locally and overseas; and
 - (ii) monitor, document and report cases of trafficking in persons involving employers and labour recruiters; and
- (d) through the Ministry responsible for legal affairs-
 - (i) ensure the prompt prosecutions of persons involved in commission of offences in trafficking in persons;
 - (ii) designate and train prosecutors in special skills in prosecution of offences of trafficking in persons; and
 - (iii) establish a mechanism for free legal assistance for victims of trafficking in persons.
